

STUDIO1850/ RANDY REPORT

version 1.5 ○ 08/05/16

STUDIO CONTRIBUTION TO OREGONIAN MEDIA GROUP

SUMMARY

Every day, Studio1850 improves its process to increase awareness and understanding of its services among colleagues and clients. Since our in-house agency's launch a little more than a year ago, we've streamlined and supplemented our original services to become more accessible, efficient and valuable. Our team has brought in more than $273,000 so far in 2016. Our ideas have permeated the sales process, however, and the collaborative, creative spirit we engender can be seen in campaigns beyond those we've touched directly. The following pages detail some of our achievements since June 2015 and what our small (but mighty) team has planned for the future.

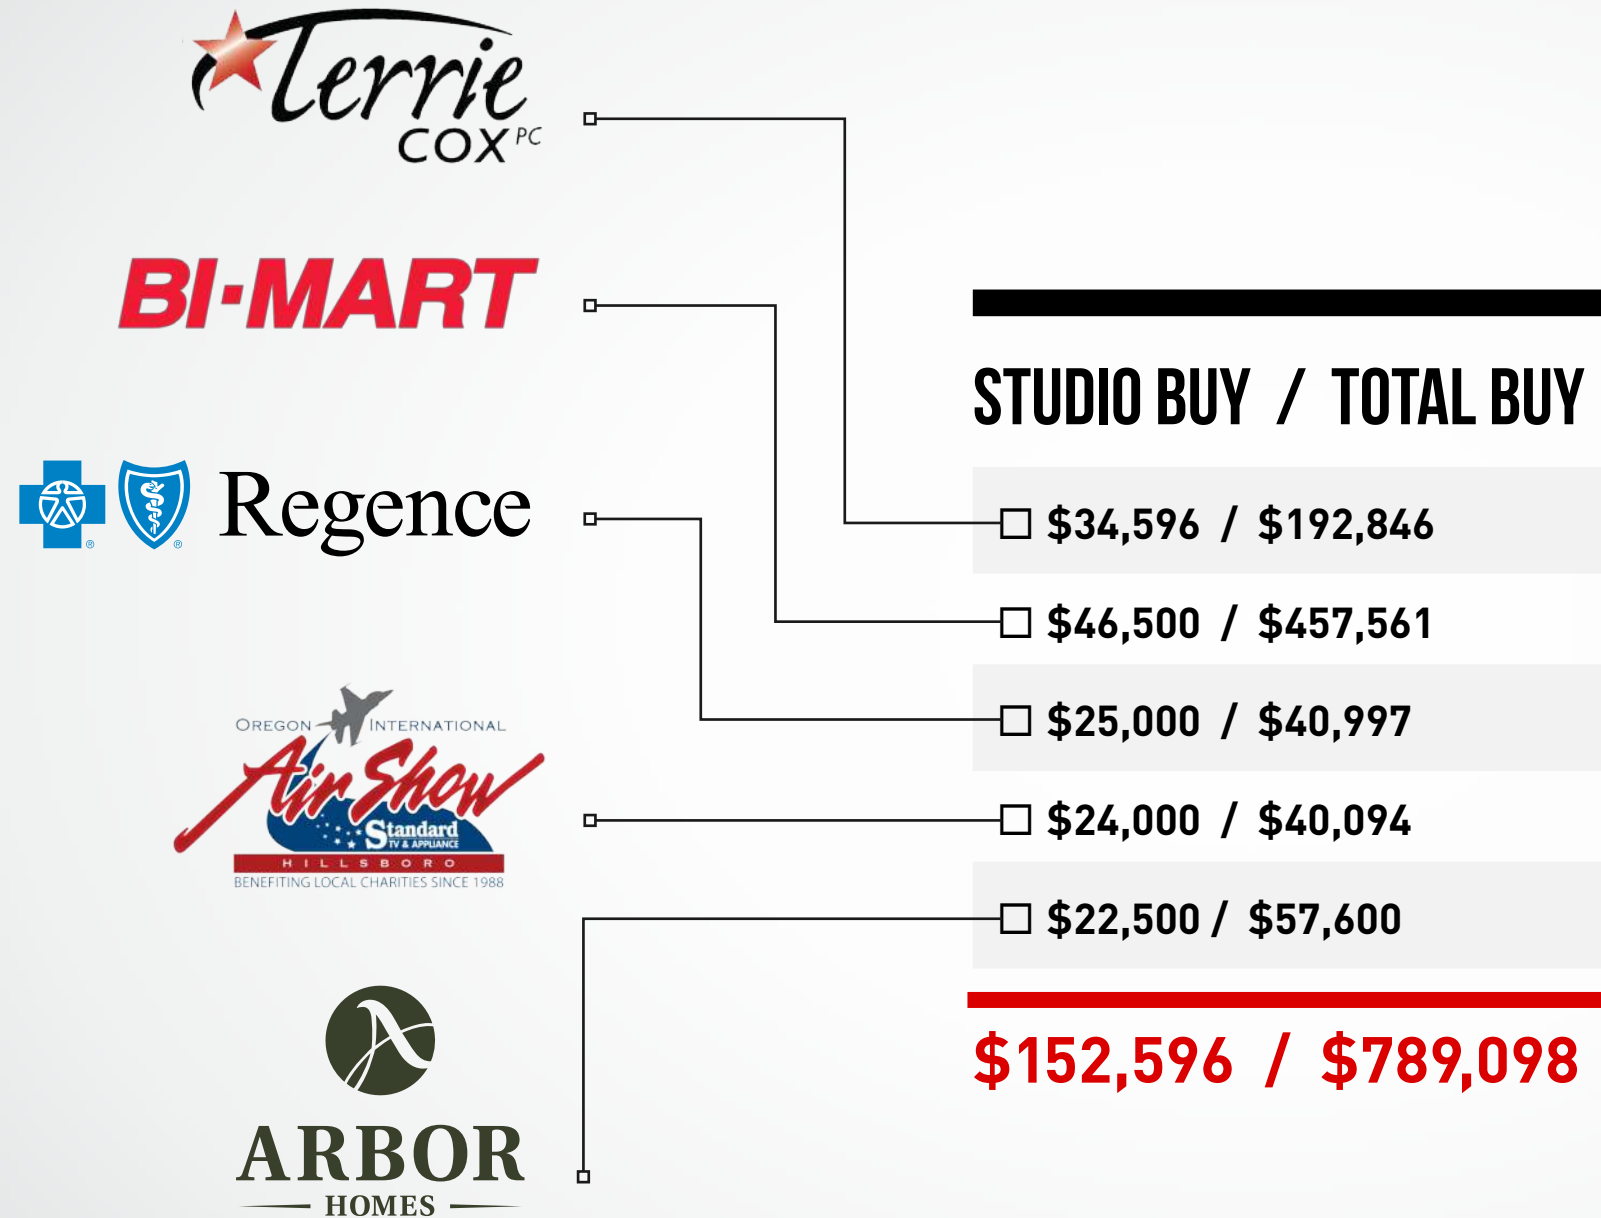

REVENUE BY PRODUCT

Website development and content marketing generate most of Studio1850's revenue – $164,802 and $43,396, respectively, so far in 2016 – and we're reimagining deliverables to make these services even more valuable for clients. We've forged strong partnerships with local website developers, allowing our team to take control of the creative process and deliver more consistent, robust brand representation. Content marketing also has evolved, now encompassing not just the writing of sponsored articles, but also content audits, strategies, editorial calendars and research. Content proposals incorporate articles as well as graphics, opportunities for social engagement, photo sessions and video shoots.

TOP CLIENTS

Our top clients are our savviest, and they demand a creative team that can stay a few steps ahead. We strategize and launch complex campaigns for these advertisers, incorporating a variety of print and digital channels, as well as site development, original content, branding, collateral and logo design. Studio1850 regularly collaborates with account executives and other teams at Oregonian Media Group (as well as Advance and Headline Studio) at every stage to guarantee flawless fulfillment and excellent results.

Portland's affordable, efficient window replacement experts

I'm the one "they" don't want you to call

Have you received a quote from another window company, only to suffer sticker shock? Have you given up on replacing your old, drafty windows?

With no salesmen and low overhead, I can offer energy-efficient, noise-reducing triple pane windows for up to 60% less than the sale price of most other companies' double pane windows. And our windows are made right here in the Northwest.

Why settle for their double pane when you could have more energy-efficient triple pane for up to 60% less?

PRESENTATION SUPPORT

Studio1850's creative services extend beyond our deliverables. We enhance proposals of $50,000 and higher with an eye for design and messaging written specifically for the intended audience. Our involvement in the presale process shows clients – and our internal teams – the attention to detail we deliver. Though these proposals don't always include Studio1850 services, we subtly open the door for that conversation by presenting Oregonian Media Group with a professional, creative voice.
